

Dodge dart value question

Hey, I have heard a couple of you talking about your Dodge Darts, so I have a question for you. A buddy of mine has an old dodge dart. It still runs great, the interior is in good shape just a little faded and the exterior has no rust only faded paint. He almost sold it to a scraper for $200. I told him that would be bad. How much do you think a car like that is worth? Should he just take the $200 and scrap it?

Ad a Dodge Dart lover I am going to say that scrapping a Dodge Dart the runs and is in that condition is a really bad idea. I am sure you can get a lot more than $200 for it. Do you want to sell it as is or are you willing to work on it?
