

Second generation Charger

I think we all have our favorites and this is my close second, but I only like the 2nd gen's while my better half loves all of them. And we are a Ford vs. anything else household too (fun on debate nights). For some reason this set really sticks out for me. I kind of like the new ones too but I doubt I would get one, I still want my mustang I guess. 😊

I have to say that I loved the first generation chargers. I was a little worried that the second generation was going to ruin the reputation of the car. I was pretty pleased when I saw how retro yet modern the second generations were.
