I don't really think of a Volvo when I think of classic cars, but does anyone here have one? I haven't seen much, if anything here about them. Then again, I saw a really cute little 1964 PV544 and it made me wonder why we don't hear so much about them, it's a decent looking little car.

Years ago I restored a 1961 P1800 and she was a beautiful thing, I have to say. Cherry red, lots of chrome. I fell in love with that car. I did the restore for resale, but by the end of it I was sad to see her go. The guys that bought her was a great guy and I'm sure took really good care of her!
